

1629. 269

mashing potatoes on the table as it makes crooked writing and milk spots.

Thursday I was at the dentist-he drilled and took out part of a nerve found a blood clot on it.
He put in some medicinal stuff to deaden what nerve I had left and Friday night in eating supper I lost the temporary filling and have the tooth ache a lot since. This afternoon I wondered what I would do next; also have a canker sore the size of this O and have had a sore time with my blister heel have had to wear my bedroom slippers. Being low heels the callos of my limbs and heels have suffered also, aside from two cuts on my fingers am feeling fine.

Cora and Edith went to town yesterday so Helen and I went after her and stopped at 3 o'clock